1 numerous organizations that are indebted and connected with --
2 I think there is substantial merit to the arguments and the 3 evidence that we have seen that this may be camouflaged equity
4 investments, so-called by Michael Murphy in his presentation.

5 Certainly, the Dow creditors and Cox creditors would 6 be of concern and deserve extensive scrutiny in that regard,
7 but, on its face, it appears that there is a significant 8 connection here.

9 The defendant in this matter has attempted to 10 indicate that BCB, whose role in this in Phase 1 -- using the 11 terms of the parties in that regard -- as the project manager,
12 was -- was interesting to the Court of how it was structured 13 and the surrounding comments about it because BCB was really 14 the cat's paw, deliberately selected in this matter by the 15 Chinese members for the purpose of presenting a local face on 16 this project and disguising, in a way, the responsibility of 17 the foreign members or making not -- it not as apparent after 18 these agreements and contracts were entered into.

19 Of course, BCB was eager and would have done
20 anything -- even stupidly giving up their one asset in this 21 matter, their winnings of the Black Hills lottery that they 22 had -- for the opportunity to put together a blockchain
23 program, mining program, that could bring great -- great 24 wealth with the electricity that would be provided for it.

25 So they played the role of the face of this
